

A guideline for...

PLANNING A SCHOLARSHIP DINNER

This outline can be used as a checklist for things to consider when planning your chapter's scholarship dinner.

I. Your Guests...

- A. Deciding who invites your guests
 - 1. Have all the members invite one (or more) guests of their choice, making sure the scholarship chairman knows of everyone who is attending
 - 2. Have the chapter vote on a few specific guests
 - 3. Scholarship chair chooses who to invite
- B. Which people do you invite to your function
 - 1. Professors
 - 2. Teaching assistants
 - 3. Administrators
 - 4. Greek life advisors
 - 5. Parents
 - 6. Alumni
- C. Inviting your guests
 - 1. Personal invitation as well as a hand written invitation
 - 2. Describe the event, an agenda
 - 3. Provide the directions and parking
 - 4. Ask them what part they would like to play (speak, just attend?)
 - 5. Make sure there is good food
- D. Following through, making your guests want to come back
 - 1. Thank you notes
 - 2. Thank them for coming when they leave
 - 3. Invite them back for another event

II. Making your guests feel welcome

- A. Protocol and formalities
 - 1. Nice dress by all members
 - 2. Name tags and placecards
 - 3. A contact list of all people with whom each guest is acquainted
 - 4. Formal introductions at dinner
 - 5. Guest book
 - 6. Flowers and other decorations
 - 7. Mocktails/.cocktails taking proper precautions
 - 8. Chapter song

III. The program

- A. The basic format or theme
 - 1. Organized around the academic awards given by the chapter
 - 2. Oriented toward the speaker
 - 3. Informal gathering to eat
- B. The speaker, topic, awards...
 - 1. Speaker
 - a) Some of the officers give brief reports
 - b) Alumni of the chapter speak
 - c) University staff member
 - d) Professor (how many?)
 - 2. Topics
 - a) The future of fraternities and sororities
 - b) The job market
 - c) Popular issues
 - d) Academics
 - 3. Awards
 - a) High GPA award
 - b) Room GPA
 - c) Highest big bro/little bro or big sis/little sis GPA
 - d) Highest pledge GPA